To Whom It May Concern

Re: Paragon Services, Inc., and BKB Construction

I have known and worked with Paragon Services, Inc, and BKB Construction for the past 30 years. Beyond any doubt, I find them to be one of the most upstanding and conscientious contractors of the waterproofing and coating industry. Throughout all the years, they have always been willing to learn and follow the manufacturer's both verbal and written instructions. They pay close attention to detail and consideration of all their clients needs and fulfill their desire to be one of the best in the industry.

They promptly pay for materials, and we are proud to have them as our customer in every manner. This company is simply outstanding in the construction business and they will be a true pleasure with whom to do business. As I have often said, "I'd take a 1,000 more just like them," and believe you would too.

Best Regards,
